SUMMARY ACCREDITATION REPORT

Hong Kong Art School

Programme Validation of Professional Diploma in Applied Theatre and Drama Education

And

Programme Revalidation of Higher Diploma in Fine Art Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts

April 2014
1. Introduction

1.1 Hong Kong Art School (香港藝術學院) (HKAS/the School/the Operator) is a self-financed, non-profit institution founded in 2000. It is a division of the Hong Kong Arts Centre which has a charter to promote art and art education in Hong Kong. HKAS has three teaching venues – the Main Campus at Hong Kong Arts Centre (Wanchai), the HKAS Pao Huang Sue Ing Campus (Shau Kei Wan), and the HKAS Chai Wan Campus. HKAS offers award bearing programmes in four major areas: Fine Art, Applied Art, Media Art, and Applied Theatre and Drama Education, ranging from sub-degree level to bachelor and master degree levels. Programmes at degree level or above are offered in collaboration with local and overseas universities, which lead to awards of the respective universities.

1.2 Based on the Service Agreement, the HKCAAVQ was commissioned by Hong Kong Art School (香港藝術學院) to conduct an accreditation test as provided for under the AAVQO to (a) assess and determine whether the Professional Diploma in Applied Theatre and Drama Education (PDATDE) achieves the stated objectives and meets the Qualifications Framework (QF) standard at QF Level 5, and (b) assess and determine whether the following programmes achieve the stated objectives and meet the QF standard at Level 4 and can continue to be offered as accredited programmes from the 2014/15 academic year:
(1) Higher Diploma in Fine Art; and
(2) Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts.

1.3 The accreditation exercise was conducted according to the relevant accreditation guidelines referred to in the Service Agreement as well as the Terms of Reference stated therein. The Education Bureau’s “Revised Common Descriptors for Associate Degree and Higher Diploma Programmes under the New Academic Structure” is also a guiding document used by the Panel and the Operator in conducting this validation exercise for the higher diploma programmes. An on-site visit took place on 4-6 March 2014.

2. HKCAAVQ’s Accreditation Determination

Having due consideration of the accreditation panel’s observations and comments as presented in this Report, the HKCAAVQ makes the following accreditation determination:

Recommendations

1. The allocation of notional learning hours should be regularly reviewed and subject coordinators should keep track of students’ learning, to see whether they are spending the expected time on tasks assigned and provide feedback, as appropriate. Proper documentation of tasks/assignment design, assessment criteria, support measures to students for achieving learning outcomes are necessary.

2. The School should explore opportunities for internship placement for students that request such support.

3. The School should consider appointing a professional counselor to provide student counselling services.

3. Programme Details

The following is the programme information provided by the Operator.

3.1 Programme Objectives

Professional Diploma in Applied Theatre and Drama Education

The PDATDE programme aims at providing teachers, social workers, theatre artists and other people interested in the educational and transformative role of drama with knowledge and skills in applied theatre and drama education. It addresses concerns in the local educational, community and theatre scenes, equipping students with practical and conceptual understanding of the artistry and pedagogy of drama in a wide range of contexts. The professional training received by students will enable them to develop, implement and evaluate their own applied theatre and drama education programmes within workplace and beyond.

The programme emphasizes the importance of “act local and think global”. Students will be introduced to applied theatre and drama education practices worldwide and local to gain broad understanding of issues and debates in the international scene. Meanwhile course works and student projects will be grounded in the local arena to address concerns specific to the Hong Kong context. The programme will be taught by a team of professionals who are well-versed in the understanding of the local scene, possessing strong academic qualifications, profound teaching experiences in diverse contexts, as well as wide international exposures and recognition.

Higher Diploma in Fine Art (HDFA)

The HDFA programme aims at providing students with the opportunity to build up professional platform in skills and knowledge in the fine art area. With specialized study and relevant generic and broad-based skills, students will be able to think critically about art, become technically competent in various mediums and approaches, have a strong awareness of the theoretical and cultural context of their area of study, and work independently with appropriate analytical and evaluative skills. The programme prepares students for future artistic development of further academic studies in conjunction with Fine Art disciplines and other creative fields.

Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts (HDAMA)

The HDAMA programme offers a multi-disciplinary route for students to experience the various dimensions of communication ranging from 2D, 3D and covering the elements of time, space and interaction design. Students will be able to develop an affinity of skills with a broad range of cross-disciplinary workshops throughout the programme. The design of the workshops allows students to obtain a broad experience for pursuits of their future professions in the Applied and Media arts area. Teaching and learning consist of studio and workshop activities, seminars and lectures, contextual art experience, individual and group project-based work and self-directed research project. HDAMA does not only teach communication in purely its functional and aesthetic fashion, but also nurtures students' social and cultural awareness through the development of critical thinking, individuality and social consciousness. Students are encouraged to be a responsible creator who is able to provide artistic and innovative solutions to the issues around them.

HDAMA also prepares students for future industry/professional development or further academic studies in conjunction with the Applied and Media Arts disciplines and other creative fields.
