

HKCAAVQ Chairman

Ir Dr Alex CHAN Siu-kun, BBS
Managing Director
Applied Technology Integration Limited

Ir Dr Alex Chan was appointed as the Chairman of the Hong Kong Council for Academic Accreditation and Vocational Qualifications in October 2015, he is also committed to public and community service by actively serving numerous local government and public organizations in various capacities. Currently, He is a current member of the Barristers Disciplinary Tribunal Panel, HKSAR and a member of the Board of Management of the Chinese Permanent Cemeteries and the Chairman of its Works and Development Committee.

Over the past 30 years, Dr Chan has been involved in many mass transit systems, mainline railways and road tunnel projects locally, on the Mainland and internationally. He was the President of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (HKIE) from 2003 to 2004 and served various global professional committees, such as Sydney Accord, International Professional Engineers Agreement and Grouping Group of International Engineering Alliance.

In recognition of his overall engineering achievements and distinguished public service, Dr Chan was awarded “Ten Outstanding Young Persons” in the professional category in 1993 and the President’s Award from HKIE in 2015, followed by induction into the HKIE Hall of Fame in the same year for his contributions to the Institution and international engineering education and competence agreements. In July 2016, Dr Chan is awarded the Bronze Bauhinia Star (BBS) for his meritorious public and community service, particularly the significant contributions to the implementation of the Qualifications Framework.

He holds a BSc (Eng) degree in mechanical engineering and a PhD degree from the University of Hong Kong.